

Samples of Professional Continuing Educational

AIA California Council

Sample:

Accessibility in the Public Realm: Spend a Day in My Wheelchair

Letrice Sherrillo, AIA, a recent wheelchair user, takes us through downtown San Francisco as she navigates hospitality, retail and public spaces.

Observations From an Accessibility Inspector

Steve Dolim, AIA, CASp, CASI, RCI-ADA & ICC Accessibility Inspector, enlightens us about the most common and frequently misunderstood accessibility violations.

Universal Design in Single-Family Homes

Erick Mikiten, AIA, a lifelong wheelchair user, takes us on a tour of his award-winning design of this universally accessible wine country residence.

Universal Design in Multi-Family Homes

Erick Mikiten, AIA, wheels us through this 39-unit affordable housing project designed for people with a wide range of abilities.

Division of the State Architect (DSA)

Provides a yearlong Academy

Sample:

CERTIFIED ACCESS SPECIALIST (CASp)

CASp 101: Certification and Practice (1 day - $75)

This class highlights significant changes to the DSA Certified Access Specialist (CASp) Program, with information relevant to the CASp, candidates interested in seeking certification, or individuals who want to find out more about the CASp program.

PROJECT INSPECTOR

Project Inspector Overview - Code Updates & New Construction Oversight Procedures (2 day - $500)

This class provides a summary of the key knowledge areas affording project inspector competency of the rules, regulations, standards, procedures and inspection techniques associated with public school construction projects under DSA jurisdiction. DSA-Certified Project Inspectors must attend this class within their four-year certification period as one of the requirements for re-certification.

STRUCTURAL

Plan Review - Structural (2013 CBC) (1 day - $300)

Equips participants with the essential concepts, reference materials and job aides for conducting timely, consistent, and accurate plan reviews for structural compliance. The course orients participants to the 2013 California Building Code

2016 CBC Amendments - Structural Safety (1 day - $250)

Highlights significant changes regarding Structural Safety included in the 2016 California Building Code (CBC).

ACCESSIBILITY

Plan Review - Access (2013 CBC) (1 days - $250)

This course equips participants with essential concepts, reference materials and job aides for conducting timely, consistent and accurate plan review for access compliance. The course is oriented to Chapter 11B of the 2013 California Building Code.

Access Compliance - 2013 and 2016 California Building Code (1 days - $250)

This course highlights access provisions in Chapter 11B of the 2013 California Building Code including the Intervening Code Adoption Cycle Supplement and the 2016 California Building Code approved by the Building Standards Commission in January 2016.

Transient Lodging, Housing at a Place of Education, and Social Service Center